ORDER

Before the court is Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment (Doc.52, filed September 2, 2008). Plaintiff is DIRECTED to file a response to said motion on or before September 16, 2008. Defendant may file a reply, if desired, on or before September 23, 2008. Thereafter, Defendants' motion for summary judgment, and all pleadings and evidence filed in support of, or in opposition to said Motion, shall be DEEMED submitted to the court.<sup>1</sup>

Pleadings submitted beyond the submission date will not be considered by the court

<sup>1</sup> This submission is without oral argument. Should the court determine that oral argument is necessary, a hearing will be scheduled. If the nonmoving party fails to respond, a final judgment may be entered without further notice or trial. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e). The moving party's evidence may be accepted as true if it is not contradicted by the opposing party. Id. The contradiction must be supported by evidence which may include, but is not limited to, affidavits and depositions. Any evidence, and in particular deposition testimony, must be cited to with specificity and particularity. Id. If deposition testimony is submitted and relied upon, the parties shall direct the court to specific testimony which either does or does not "set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial." Id. Summary judgment may be granted for either party if the evidence filed with the court shows that there is no material question of fact and that a party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 56.

CONSIDERED and ORDERED this 3rd day of September, 2008.
